ONE ISLAND COUNTLESS HORIZON

This few words seem the best way to describe Corsica's outstandingly diverse and preserved beauty .Only two hours from European Capitals a unique combination of 1000 km of wild coastline with green dramatic mountains backdrops: a succession of contrasted landscapes basking into the Mediterranean sun.

Blessed with unspoilt nature and biodiversity , the med's greenest island expresses genuine values of sustainable development on witch many corporate events & strategies are based.

Beyond breath-taking wild sceneries and lively culture, experience the local magic where the authenticity of the land meets modern high-standard facilities and professional certified service providers, making Corsica the perfect destination for congresses, seminars, incentives, product launches and events. There is where business becomes an unforgettable experience, a milestone for corporate events, teams and representatives.

The corporate bureau at the Corsican Tourism Agency, the numerous Corsica –specialized incoming agencies, with their selective suppliers, will be your partners to imagine and build-up customized programs that combine business and pleasure throughout the island in order to make your corporate project a success.

Looking forward to help and welcome you for a unique moment.

“ A presto ind'a nostra Isola”- See you soon in Corsica.

A DESTINATION THAT MATCHES YOUR AMBITIONS

SEMINARS, INCENTIVES & CONGRESSES. Boasting a territory that is particularly suitable for business travel, the destination offers exceptional venues, sometimes at the ends of the Earth where the sea and the Maquis meet, with meeting rooms for seminars and ideal spots for hosting gala dinners.

Uniting pleasure and originality, it is possible to spend the night in a luxury bivouac providing High-rated comfort and services, in perfect harmony with nature; to select large private estates and luxury sheepfolds that offer horse riding excursions, botanical walks and archaeological visits.

For your business meetings, our infrastructures complete the offer for a destination drawing from its solid experience in hospitality, including significant reference points in the field of congress organisation. The landscapes provide a panorama suitable for hosting events, product launches, film and video shoots.

◆ THE GREEN ISLAND OF THE

From North to South, East to West, from the sea to the mountains, Corsica is a land of a thousand faces. Its exceptional natural environment and a topography that is unique in the Mediterranean are its main advantages. Its 6 nature reserves, 40 mountain lakes, countless remarkable sites, 120 peaks that rise above an altitude of 2,000m, snow-capped up until the spring, its 25 waterways, verdant forests and international marine parks all combine to make it the green island of the Mediterranean.

Because it is at once wild, welcoming and well-preserved, imbued with a strong identity, Corsica is a unique place that stirs the strongest of emotions, creating genuine surprises and human encounters that will define your business trips here. Make the most of the advantages of this land that knows so well how to best meet the needs and expectations of event organisers and delegates, with beautiful emotions on the horizon!
